

National Award for Saakshar Bharat to State Resource Center, Indore

State Resource Center for Adult Education, Bartiya Gramin Mahila Sangh, Indore was given a National Award for Saakshar Bharat due to its outstanding contribution as a resource support agency for adult literacy program.

In a graceful function organized at Vigyan Bhavan on 8th September, International Literacy Day, the Honorable Vice President of India Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu and Honorable Minister of Human Resource Development Shri Prakash Javadekar presented the award to Mrs. Anjali Agarwal, Director, State Resource Center, Indore for SRC's outstanding contribution in the field of literacy.

Minister of State for Human Resource Development Dr. Satyapal Singh and Shri Upendra Kushwaha also graced the occasion. Mr. Anil Swaroop, Secretary and Ms. Rina Ray, Special Secretary, School Education and Literacy and UNESCO representative, Mr. Shigeru Aoyagi also attende the program.

All the respected dignitaries provided guidance to take the Literacy program forward to achieve 100% literacy in the next 5 years.

